The Gazette.

PHILADELPHIA,

THURSDAY EVENING, AUGUST 22.

FROM A LATE LONDON PAPER.

St. Domingo.

The newspapers have, for several days, given very erroneous accounts of the state of St. Domingo, and of the existance of a treaty with Toussaint. No such treaty as they mention ever was made. The following particulars may be depended upon:

Toussaint L'Ouverture is a black, and a native of St. Domingo. He was born a slave, and as such remained till the troubles in that Island gave an opportunity for the display of his talents. His master a considerable planter, took him while very young to France, where he remained some time; and being a smart lad, attention was paid to his education, which is better than most negroes receive. But still he was only a negro slave, and returned to St. Domingo, where he lived in that character several years before the troubles broke out. Soon after the French Revolution, our readers know how the misinterpretation of the principles of Liberty and Equality desolated St. Domingo. The whites were destroyed, and after them the people of colour, the blacks remaining in fact the masters of the island. In the dreadful scenes that occurred, Toussaint soon distinguished himself, and acquired a sovereign sway over his fellow-negroes, amounting now to 100,000 men in arms, inured to the climate, and educated to war.

Toussaint, to the talents of a General and a Politician, adds those more amiable of gratitude and humanity. His master fled to the United States of America, and Toussaint remitted him, or endeavoured to remit, as much of the produce of his estate as was possible. When General Maitland evacuated Port-au-Prince, the treaty for that purpose was negociated and concluded with Toussaint, who executed every condition with the strictest fidelity and honour. But Toussaint did not treat as an independent Prince, as some of the papers have said. All he did was in the name of the French republic. For while he is absolute monarch over St. Domingo, he affects and sincerely wishes to be a subject of France, a fact of which the following anecdote is a sufficient testimony.

When General Maitland evacuated Port-au-Prince, all the old French planters who had joined the British, departed with him of course. In the harbour was the old master of Toussaint, who had come from the continent to endeavour to retrieve his property, in which he had been unsuccessful; and he was about to fly with the English, in rags and wretchedness. General Maitland had too much wisdom to treat Toussaint as a brigand (robber) as he had hitherto been treated; and Toussaint's conduct repaid him for his civility.

Toussaint hearing of his master, sent a message to General Maitland, saying he had a favour to ask. What was it?—To send his master to him. The General did so; and Toussaint restored his master to his estates, and gave him negroes for their cultivation. He behaved in the most affectionate and kind manner to him who had truly been his father.

General Maitland upon this sent a message, asking a favour of Toussaint.—What is it?—To restore a dozen of the principal planters to their estates. Toussaint desired they might be sent to his care. They were so. He clapped them in prison.

Some days afterwards he had them brought into a church before a large body of his fellow blacks, when he mounted the pulpit to preach a sermon, for his own prowess in arms is but a small part of his distinction. Here he enforced the virtue of forgiveness to the repentant; saying, "we were for a while Spaniards (the blacks fled to the Spanish protection in the beginning of the troubles) but we were misled. We were born Frenchmen, and now we are Frenchmen again. These twelve men have also been misled. They were born Frenchmen. For a time they have been British; but now they have returned, and are Frenchmen again. Let us embrace." Here Toussaint embraced them, and reconciled his followers. He restored them to their estates, and gave them negroes as servants,

It would be the disposition of a little mind in Toussaint's situation, to hate and persecute the whites; but he knows well that the island cannot flourish without them; that they are necessary to cultivation and good government, to the commerce and prosperity of the place. Therefore, his chief aim is to restore the planters, and revive the trade. He fears that France will one day endeavour to punish him as a rebel; but this France will never be able to accomplish.—Hedouville, the French commissioner, is a fool, and a person of no influence. Toussaint disregards him; but all Toussaint's acts are in the name of the French republic, for which alone he pretends to act; and his utmost wish is, that the directory would name him their general.——It will therefore be seen how ridiculous it is to suppose he made a treaty of commerce with General Maitland, which has been ratified by the British government. Toussaint is anxious to find a market for the produce of the island and there is an understanding, as if a treaty had been concluded. Colonel Grant is appointed our agent in St. Domingo. His ostensible business is to settle some points about the evacuation of the island; but his real business is to establish a trade, by which the whole produce of St. Domingo will be brought to Jamaica,

On the same subject.

No event has happened in the history of the present war, of more interest to the cause of humanity, or to the permanent interests of Great Britain, than the treaty which General Maitland has made with the black General Toussaint, upon the evacuation of St. Domingo. By this treaty the independence of that most valuable island is, in fact, recognized, and will be secured against all the efforts which the French can make to recover it—not merely without the expence to England, of fortifications or of armies, but with the benefit of securing to us its exclusive commerce. Toussaint is a negro, and in the jargon of the war has been called a brigand; but according to all report he is a negro born to vindicate the claims of his species, and to shew that the character of man is independant of exterior color. The late events in St. Domingo will soon engage the public attention; and they are such as are calculated to please all parties. It is a great point to rescue this formidable island from the grasp of the directory, from whence, if they had regained their footing, they might have incessantly menaced, and perhaps assailed, the most favourite of our West-India possessions; and on the other hand, it is a great point gained to the cause of humanity, that a negro dominion is in fact constituted and organised in the West-Indies, under the command of a negro chief or king; that the black race whom the christian world, to their infamy, have been accustomed to degrade and trample upon, are now acknowledged as brothers, and are treated with upon equal terms. Every virtuous man will rejoice to hear that a negro standard is now floating. Every liberal Briton will feel proud that his country brought about the happy revolution.

The treaty that General Maitland so wisely made with M. Toussaint, the government have ratified; and colonel Grant is appointed to go out to St. Domingo as our resident and agent in that island, with very extensive powers.

ELECTION.

At a numerous and respectable meeting of the Citizens of Philadelphia and the liberties thereof, held at Dunwoody's in the city of Philadelphia on Tuesday the 13th inst. for the purpose of fixing upon a suitable person to fill the IMPORTANT office of GOVERNOR of this State, the following Resolutions were unanimously adopted, viz.

Resolved, as the sense of this meeting, That it is essential to the honor and the happiness of Pennsylvania, and highly important to the best interests of the United States, that, at the ensuing election of governor of this commonwealth, the suffrages of our fellow citizens should be given to a candidate who, combining the requisites of talents and integrity with temperance of character and independence of connexion, will ably and faithfully execute the trusts of that high station, who conciliating the particular interests of the state with the general interests of the United States, will cordially cultivate the necessary intercourse with the Federal Government; and who, having never avowed himself the partizan of foreign politics, will be at perfect liberty to pursue the exclusive advantage of his own country.

Resolved, as the sense of this meeting, That JAMES ROSS, of Pittsburg, unites, in an eminent degree, the requisites, expressed in the preceding resolution, to fill the high office of Governor of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania; and that this meeting being justified in their opinion by the uniform tenor of his private and public conduct, will give him their best support at the ensuing election.

And whereas certain persons, who are desirous of imposing another candidate on the citizens of Pennsylvania, far from imitating the laudable example which had been given by the friends of Mr. Ross, of carefully abstaining from all illiberality of opinion, have attempted to aid their purpose by false and indecent insinuations that their opponents are influenced by unworthy motives, and as silence, under such censure, might be tortured into a concession of its truth:

Resolved, as the sense of this meeting, that the corresponding committee heretofore appointed, be instructed to prepare an address to our fellow citizens throughout the state, on the subject of said election, wherein, if they shall deem it necessary or useful to defeat the projects of our antagonists, they shall be at liberty freely to examine and discuss the merits of the opposite candidate, and the pretensions of those persons, who thus presume to assign improper motives to the conduct of others; and that, unawed by official character, or by any other consideration, the individuals who compose this meeting will aid the examination and discussion, if they shall be resolved on, by supplying every necessary information, whether it shall tend to expose the inability or defects of the opposite candidate; or to illustrate and explain the characters of those individuals who style themselves his supporters, and who have thus dared, under their signatures, to impeach the integrity of their opponents. —And as in adducing this information (Mr. M'Kean's services as a judge being much relied on) it may be necessary to resort to the remonstrances of Juries, and the representations of the Bar, to expose his judicial tyranny and intolerance, or to the deliberate declarations of political wishes and opinions which, if realized, would subvert the liberty, the religion, and the social order of our country.

Or, as in discussing the pretensions of those men who have thus falsely stigmatized their opponents, it may be necessary to recur to Proclamations which have proscribed some of them as TRAITORS—to examine dockets to trace the most disgraceful allegations against others—to enquire into the equivocal circumstances which cloud the late coming of others of them to America, who, like birds of ill omen, have made their appearance among us since the revolution, and who now dare to question the motives of men who hazarded all that was dear to them in establishing the Independence of America. The committee are requested, if they are resolved to recriminate, to give to all the facts which they may state, such solemn sanction as will stamp conviction on the minds of whoever may peruse them.

ROBERT WHARTON. Chairman.

Resolved, that a committee of three be appointed to attend a meeting to be held at the county of Philadelphia, and a committee of three to attend a meeting to be held in the county of Delaware for the purpose of representing to the said meetings the determination of this meeting to support Joseph Ball, Esq. as Senator, and to desire a co-operation on their part, when

Mr. Levy Hollingsworth, Mr. Henry Pratt, and John Hallowell, Esq. were appointed to attend the meeting in the county of Philadelphia, and

Mr. John Wall, Mr. Jesse Sharpless, and Michael Keppele, Esq. were appointed to attend the meeting in the county of Delaware.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the different German and English newspapers throughout the state, signed by the Chairman and countersigned by the Secretary.

MEMORANDUM,

Handed by a passenger in the ship Prosper, from Hamburg.

April 10th, the ship Fame, of Baltimore, capt. James Lattemore, and Edward Stiles, supercargo, was at Embden, to leave that place or Amsterdam in all May, for Batavia.

☞ Yesterday arrived the schr. Betsey, capt. M'Heron, in 4 days from Halifax. By this vessel we have been favoured with papers to the 6th of August; they contain London dates of the 13th of June, [received by the British packet Harlequin,] being one day later than any on the continent. Extracts follow:

HALIFAX, AUG. 1.

Thursday arrived the ship Hope from Madeira; and on Friday the ship William, from Glasgow.

Friday arrived the Harlequin Packet, capt. Gray, in 39 day from Falmouth.

The London papers brought by the Harlequin, are to the 13th of June

The London Gazette announces the appointment of Lieut. Gen. the Duke of Kent to be General in the Army, and to be General and Commander in Chief of the Forces in North America, vice General R. Prescott.

Lieut. Col. Wetheral is appointed Adjutant Gen. to the British forces in North America.

From the best information we have been able to collect, his Royal Highness the Duke of Kent may be expected here in the course of the ensuing month. It is said the Endymion frigate is appointed to that service.

LONDON, JUNE. 13

The Hamburg Mail of yesterday, tho' it has brought no accounts of striking events is yet to be considered as of very great importance for the events which it either announces or confirms.

The great natural bulwarks of Switzerland, the Rhine and the Alps are passed. The Austrians have made good their footing in that difficult country.

The plan of the campaign is completely reversed. Instead of the co-operation of Jourdan and Sherer in invading Austria, we see the junction of the Archduke and Suwarrow threaten the whole eastern, frontier of France.

Much time may yet be spent and much blood undoubtedly be spilt before Massena be expelled from Switzerland; but it is quite obvious that his present object is only to gain time for covering the frontiers of Alsace and Franche Compte.

The letters of the best informed men, from the Continent, represent all idea of retaining Switzerland as being abandoned by the French. They who cannot defend the Rhine and the Alps have no hope in weaker positions.

It is now three months that private letters from Russia announce, that the Swedish fleet of flat bottomed vessels will join the Russian galley fleet, which was to sail upon a certain expedition in the course of June. Sweden has also recalled its Ambassador from Paris, and the declaration since made by the king of Sweden to the Diet shows, that these measures were preconcerted long ago.

BOSTON, August 17.

Capt. Gould returned to Salem, from Guadaloupe, informs, that he was taken by a French government ship, of 16 guns, from Guadaloupe, which in the course of 45 days had captured fifteen American, and three English vessels; all of whom except one, had arrived. Capt. G. also informs, that from the time of his capture, to his arrival at Guadaloupe, (nine days) he was boarded from, or was spoke by nine French privateers.—There were at Guadaloupe, amongst other American prizes, a snow, Ephraim Perkins, master; a schooner, Hubbard, master, and another vessel from Kennebunk; a schooner, Grave, master, from Marblehead; and several from Newburyport.

The work of the frigate building at Salem, is pushed with vigour. Connoisseurs say the ship looks well upon the stocks. In three or four weeks we shall see how she sits upon the water.

The recruiting service for the army of the United States is going on vigorously throughout every part of the country; and "men of iron sinew" are daily flocking to the "post of honor" in considerable numbers.

A Mr. Henry Jackson, of Dublin an eminent ironmonger, worth 50,000l. sterling, has obtained permission of the English government to emigrate to the United States.

Neckar, the celebrated Financier, still lives in Switzerland, respected even in the pell mell confusion of war.

Carnot the French Ex-Director, is said to be with the army of the Archduke incog. exercising his great military talents, in giving success to the Austrian arms, in reversing the power of his tyrannical persecutors.

SUWARROW AND THE ARCHDUKE.

That valor is not entailed to corporeal dimensions, is pretty well proved the present campaign.—Suwarrow, who commands the allied army, in Italy, is 6 feet 4 inches high, and proportionably ſtout and boney. Whereas Prince Charles, who commands the Auſtrian army penetrating through Switzerland, is barely five feet one inch; with a correſpondent frame of the moſt delicate texture.

It appears by Gen. Moreau's letter, that the Archduke, ſlender as he is, led on his attack of the French lines, near the Thur, in perſon; and ſuſtained the fatigues of the field, from day-break until after ſunſet.

The Emperor Paul is the moſt inveterate enemy the French have. He appears determined not only to reinſtate the Bourbons on the throne of their anceſtors, but to chaſtiſe all his neighbours who do not lend a hand in the meaſure. He looks hard at Pruſſia.

The King of Pruſſia, on the other hand, ſhews his teeth to the Imperial Paul; and has an army of 25 to 30,000 men aſſembled at Minden, which he reviewed in May laſt.

The French people are ſaid to be clamorous for Peace.—Suwarow appears to ſecond the motion, but then he chooſes to negociate in his own way.

Sir Wm. Hamilton, who had been accuſtomed to anticipate violent eruptions, took care to leave the French nothing at Naples but the bare walls of his houſe.

COMMUNICATION.

It is ſaid that Don Tomaso has already planned how he will diſpoſe of the loaves and fiſhes ſhould he get into the Executive chair. A certain political quack, who has changed ſides with the ſeaſons, been a banger on by turns to all parties, and whoſe thirſt for a place is even greater than his thirſt for water, has the promiſe of a ſeat on the bench of the Supreme Court. A rare judge, truly, he would make! This may be vulgarly called "counting their chickens before they are hatched." How chop-fallen the poor, greedy democrats will look, when they find they are to expect nothing more ſubſtantial than wiſhes!

For the GAZETTE of the UNITED STATES.

The caſe of JONATHAN ROBBINS, candidly conſidered.

The Aurora ſcribblers, and their coadjutors, have endeavored to raiſe a hue and cry againſt the government, for having ſurrendered this unfortunate man to the King of Great Britain. They have repreſented the ſurrender as unconſtitutional and have contended that his caſe is not within the intent and meaning of the 27th article of the treaty of amity, &c.

The detraction and ſlanders of theſe people againſt the federal government and its officers, are, generally, ſo palpable and barefaced, that expoſure alone is neceſſary to their detection. Their opinions, in this inſtance, however have been aſſerted with ſo much effrontery, that, the ſubject itſelf not being eaſily underſtood, they might, if unanſwered, be received as orthodox. It is to obviate this that you are requeſted to communicate the following facts and reflections to the public.

It is admitted that Jonathan Robbins is a native citizen of the United States, and it may be admitted (although the fact is not proved and may perhaps be otherwiſe) that he was impreſſed againſt his will on board the Britiſh frigate Hermione. He continued on board the Hermione for ſeveral cruizes, during which ſhe touched often at ports in the Weſt Indies and elſewhere, affording frequent opportunities to Robbins, of either ſeeking the protection of his government, by application to its conſuls, &c. or of eſcaping, which might have been effected with very little addreſs, if the diſpoſition had not been wanting. But he appears to have been ſo well pleaſed with his ſituation, whether brought into it voluntarily or involuntarily, that he never made an attempt to eſcape, nor applied to an American Conſul for protection; on the contrary, he was made a warrant officer on board the ſhip; which implies his conſent thereto. Let this fact be remembered as a perfect anſwer to his juſtification on the ground of dureſs. Afterwards, he, with the reſt of the crew, conſpired to ſeize the ſhip and carry her into a Spaniſh port, in effecting which, the officers were murdered with circumſtances of horrid cruelty too dreadful to be told. Robbins is charged with having been a principal actor in this bloody ſcene, and to aſcertain his guilt or innocence he is ſurrendered to the only tribunal that could take cognizance of the offence.

This ſurrender is objected to, as being unconſtitutional. But what ſays the Conſtitution? Article 3. ſect. 2. "The trial of all crimes, except in caſes of impeachment, ſhall be by Jury; and ſuch trial ſhall be held in the ſtate wherein the ſaid crimes ſhall have been committed: but when not committed within any ſtate, the trial ſhall be at ſuch place or places as Congreſs may by law have directed." Now admitting that the crime in this inſtance had been committed within the maritime juriſdiction of the United States (which however I utterly deny) on board a merchant veſſel of the United States in foreign ſeas, where ſhould the offender be tried? Why at ſuch place as Congreſs may by law have directed." What then is a treaty? I do not contend that a treaty is paramount to the conſtitution; but ſurely a treaty, conſtiutionally made, is at leaſt of equal authority with a with a law, conſtitutionally made, and, indeed, if, as is the creed of ſome, the Houſe of Repreſentatives have a voice in the formation of treaties, they may be ſtrictly termed laws of Congreſs. There can be no doubt therefore, that the 27th article of the Treaty of Amity, &c. is conſtitutional.

The ſurrender has been complained of as not being required by the 27th article of the treaty. The words of the article are "That his majeſty and the United States, on mutual requiſitions &c. will deliver up to juſtice all perſons who being charged with murder or forgery, committed within the juriſdiction of either, ſhall ſeek an aſylum within the countries of the other, provided, that this ſhall only be done on ſuch evidence of criminality, as, according to the laws of the place, where the fugitive ſo charged ſhall be found, would juſtify his apprehenſion and commitment for trial, if the offence had there been committed." The only queſtions that can ariſe on the application of this article, are; 1. Whether the murder with which Robbins is charged, was committed within the juriſdiction of his Britannic Majeſty? 2. Whether he has ſought an aſylum in the United States? And 3. Whether there has been ſuch evidence of criminality as would have juſtified his apprehenſion & commitment for trial, if the offence had been committed within the juriſdiction of the United States? In ſupport of the affirmative of the firſt queſtion, Vide Vattel, 1, b. c. 19. s. 216. "It is natural to conſider the veſſels of a nation as a part of its territory, eſpecially, when they ſail upon a free ſea, ſince the ſtate preſerves its juriſdiction in theſe veſſels." 2. That Robbins ſought an aſylum, in the United States, ſufficiently appears, ſince he is found there: and 3. As to the ſufficiency of the evidence of his criminality, no man can doubt who reads the depoſitions of Portlock and Forbes. Indeed, Robbins' counſel in argument attempted to juſtify the fact, thereby admitting his having been guilty of it.

In addition to theſe obſervations, it may be obſerved generally, that it has been the practice of all civilized nations to ſurrender great offenders who have fled from juſtice:* That ſuch ſurrender is neceſſary to the ſafety of ſociety, ſince crimes can only be puniſhed where they have been committed: That the proviſions in the conſtitution of the United States for criminal proſecutions and trials for crimes, are expreſsly limited to crimes committed within a ſtate or diſtrict; and that it is prepoſterous to ſuppoſe that it was ever intended to protect a murderer, although a citizen, by refuſing to ſurrender him to the juriſdiction of that country which alone could take cognizance of his offence.

* See Dall. Rep. v. 1, p. 116.—M'Kean Chief Juſtice. "We think caſes may occur, where Council could, pro bono publico, and to prevent atrocious offenders evading puniſhment, deliver them up to the juſtice of country to which they belong or where the offences were committed.

MR. FENNO,

PROUD ſelf-ſufficiency and humble dependence were never more ſtrongly contraſted, than by the affected contempt with which a certain hair-brained theoriſt treats the feelings and opinions of his fellow citizens, and the deference and reſpect which ſome of them ſtill feel and evince towards him, in ſpite of his crazy vagaries. This medical weather cock has blown every point of the compaſs. One ſeaſon he ſounds the alarm before the enemy is nigh: the next he lulls us into ideal ſecurity when he is within our gates. He contends in the teeth of ſtubborn facts that the yellow fever is of domeſtic origin, one of our own offſpring, and, when, as in the preſent ſeaſon, evidence incontrovertible of its having been imported is produced, with an effrontery inſulting and inſolent in the higheſt degree, he ſmiles at his opponents and aſſures them there is no yellow fever here! In ſhort, within one ſmall hour he has ſported with and tortured the minds of his fellow citizens, by giving, in that ſhort ſpace, accounts directly contradictory!

Fellow citizens! it is high time your confidence ſhould be withdrawn from this caſtle-builder—this ſpinner of theories without facts or foundation, except in the vapors of his own brain. We were willing that experience ſhould decide between him and his antagoniſts, therefore efficient quaaantine laws have been paſſed to prevent the importation on the one hand and the moſt effectual meaſure to prevent the importation on the one hand, and the moſt effectual meaſures to prevent the generation of the fever on the other hand have been purſued. The happieſt conſequences would have flown from a fair experiment. Fearing, however, the deſtruction of a theory, which he has impoſed upon the ignorance and credulity of many, he continues his exclamations againſt the former proviſion, laughs at your quarantine law and wantonly inſults you by comparing your prudential meaſures to the ſilly conduct of a parent, who ſtrikes his child's forehead with a hammer to deſtroy a fly that was biting him there. Your quarantine law has been evaded, and he has done all in his power to defeat its operation.

Fellow Citizens relax not your exertions and we ſhall yet retrieve the character of our city. Enforce your quarantine law with the utmoſt rigor: let it engage your patriotic exertions as much as would the reſiſtance of an invading enemy. Remember too that cleanlineſs is the mother of health. Be cleanly in your perſons, in your houſes and in every other reſpect. We may poſſibly render our atmoſphere too pure for the exiſtence of contagion among us. Be careful to avoid the night air. Protect your bodies with flannel, which is more neceſſary at this ſeaſon of the year than in the dead of winter. Bring wholeſome water into your ſtreets, for the purpoſe of cleanſing them and for domeſtic uſes. Do theſe things and I will undertake, with the bleſſing of God, that in healthfulneſs you ſhall not be rivalled by any city on the globe.

MR. FENNO,

A place in your Paper is requeſted for the following remarks.

We have long heard of the falſhoods of the Aurora: we have long been perſuaded that the Editor has been in the pay of the French, either immediately from their Ambaſſador or Conſuls, or now through their friends. We have, to the ſhame of our laws, heard him abuſe and traduce the beſt characters of the nation: we have heard him aſſert untruths to the prejudice of the adminiſtration and officers of Government which tend, and their evident purpoſe is, to ſow the ſeeds of diſcord, and raiſe, if they could, diſturbance; then would they have their wiſh, and would no doubt juſtly exclaim, "Confuſion is our gain." Then might they hope for a Directory, and their promiſed rewards in printing for them; and to their great joy, get ſome 30 or 40 of their preſent opponent printers ſent to Cayenne. This is the Liberty and Equality they wiſh for—and all that, either from diſappointment in place hunting, themſelves or their friends, have reſolved to diſturb the preſent worthy adminiſtration. That ſuch printers ought to be conſidered as enemies, no one can doubt who knows any thing of the ſpirit of party in our ſtate; which is kept up by a Retailer from the Aurora, called the Genius of Liberty. Every friend of Government this way knows that John Mercer, Eſq. is the ſupporter of this preſs—and among the ignorant and miſled, the ill conſequence of publiſhing malicious untruths to the prejudice of the rulers of the land.

There are numbers who from the time that Mr. Jefferſon was diſappointed of the Preſident's chair, have never ceaſed to infuſe evil reports of the Preſident and officers of Government into the minds of their friends and dependants, many of whom never have any other information than from the polluted fountain of the Aurora or Genius of Liberty.—That this laſt paper has kept up the oppoſition to the preſent Government cannot be doubted; and that this has been great may be known from the oppoſition to the addreſs to the Preſident; the riot in the play-houſe; the attempted aſſaſſination of Capt. Harris, who, at this time has not recovered his eye ſight, either from a ſtab or ſome otherway, when he was left half dead. Yet the aſſaſſinators were bailed—but for the truth and candor of the Genius of Liberty, printed in Fredericksburg, Virginia, ſee that paper 23d July. However, I know the vexation of the party ariſes from their being neglected by the Preſident, who has not known what I know, that a place would make them good governmentmen. But wicked Will. Truſty ſays, Devil truſt them. Whether Will means any more than meets the eye I cannot ſay. But this I can ſay, that if poor Will may be puniſhed for returning abuſe to a demo, ſurely it is not conſiſtent with common ſenſe that infidel printers ſhould be permitted to keep up enmity againſt the general Government by falſe ſuggeſtions and malicious tales among a people as ignorant as Will, very ignorant indeed; but he ſays truth,—willing to do right if not miſled by the friends of Mr. Jefferſon and the French, made up of the enemies of the Government and of Chriſtianity. A printed lie may do ten thouſand times more miſchief than an unprinted one. The laws can reach the one but for want of defining and confining the liberty of the preſs within the ſame bounds as the liberty of the tongue, the nation is plagued with ſuch preſſes as the aforeſaid; who with others of the ſame ſtamp, would take any ſide of any cauſe, provided you will ſupport them in extravagance during their continuance in the place of a turncoat. In our parts ſome of the moſt violent anti's have ſaid they would turn for a place. I hope the Congreſs will at their next meeting take ſome order with the licentious and Frenchified printers through the United States.

Yours,

VERITAS.

TERMS

Of Richard Folwell, in Philadelphia,

FOR SUBSCRIBING TO THE

JOURNALS OF CONGRESS,

FROM THE COMMENCEMENT

Of the American War, in 1774, to the preſent time,

INCLUDING

The Reports of Heads of Departments, of Committees, and other Official and Private Papers of that Body, now firſt permitted to be made public.

TERMS.

THE work will be printed on a fine paper, and a new neat type, in large octavo.

Each volume will contain above 500 pages, neatly bound and lettered.

Uniformity in ſize, paper, and binding, will be obſerved throughout the work; ſo that, while the ſubſcribers become poſſeſſed of a valuable record, an ornament may be added to their libraries.

The price to ſubſcribers will be 2 dolls. 75 cts. per volume, in boards, and 3 dolls. whole bound, but, as the publiſher does not intend to print manmore than the number ſubſcribed for, a conſiderable riſe on the price may be expected to non-ſubſcribers.

Each volume will contain about one third leſs of letter-preſs than the original edition; but, as the publiſher is not yet enabled to determine the extent of the Private Journals, which he may be allowed to make public, he cannot aſcertain the number of volumes which will compriſe the work.

☞ Payments to be made on delivery of each volume.

Subſcribers will have it at their option, either to ſubſcribe for the whole of the Journals, up to the preſent time, or to thoſe only of the Old Congreſs prior to the organization of the Federal Government.

IN all countries, the proceedings in the commencement of their governments, are loſt in darkneſs and obſcurity, owing to a careleſsneſs, in the ſucceeding generation, to preſerve the public records, and the attention of the nation, in thoſe rude ages, being called off from their domeſtic concerns, to engage in wars and conqueſt. Of what infinite value would the laws of Alfred be, had they been tranſmitted to our days? Time, that deſtroys every thing, enhances the value of well authenticated public records, and renders them almoſt inеſtimable. It is hoped, that Americans will, therefore, chearfully contribute their aſſiſtance in tranſmitting to poſterity the labours of their anceſtors—founders of the Columbian nation.

 The work will certainly be advanced with expedition and promptitude. The following will ſhow the ſupport it has already acquired:

" That having, in our reſpective avocations, frequent occaſions to recur to the Journals of Congreſs, we experience inconvenience by the ſcarcity of them: That we underſtand that Richard Folwell, printer, of Philadelphia, has had it in contemplation to print that public record; and that he hath obtained partial countenance from many individuals; but that he has delayed proſecuting the work, in expectation of encouragement from government, that may adequately indemnify him. We, therefore, reſpectfully ſolicit, as the publication is neceſſary to be diſſeminated among public bodies, that Congreſs will, in their wiſdom, render him ſuch additional encouragement, to that which he has obtained from private individuals, as to enable him to proceed with the work, ſo that your Memorialiſts may be enabled to purchaſe copies of that record for themſelves.

The Swift-Sure,

A NEW LINE OF STAGES,

NOW RUNNING BETWEEN

PHILADELPHIA & NEW-YORK,

By the ſhort and pleaſant road of Buſſleton, Newtown, Scotch-Plains, Springfield and Newark.

THE excellence of this road, the populouſneſs of the country through which it paſſes, with ſundry other advantages, which render it ſo far preferable to the Old Road through Briſtol, Brunſwick, &c. long ago ſuggeſted the propriety of its becoming the Grand Thorough-Fare from Philadelphia to New York. During the preſent year, a minute ſurvey of it has been taken, and its ſuperiority over the Old Road, both in winter and ſummer, has been clearly aſcertained.—There are good bridges over all the other waters but the Delaware, and here the croſſing is performed with great ſafety and in leſs than half the time required at the Trenton Ferry. The road is ſeveral miles ſhorter than the old road, but this is amongſt the leaſt of its advantages, becauſe daily experience proves to us, that diſpatch as well as comfort in travelling principally depend on the goodneſs of the road and the levelneſs of the country, and, in theſe reſpects, the New Road is, beyond all compariſon, the beſt. It preſents none of thoſe rocky hills, which render the Old Road ſo fatiguing between the Delaware and Newark. The ſoil, too, for the greater part, is ſuch as to produce but little mud in winter, and very little duſt in ſummer, which circumſtance, added to the beauty of the country, and a conſiderable proportion of ſhade, muſt always render travelling in the latter ſeaſon peculiarly agreeable.

The Swift Sure ſtarts from PHILADELPHIA, at 6 o'clock every morning (Sundays excepted) from the GREEN TREE, oppoſite the Lutheran Church, North Fourth ſtreet. It goes through Frankford to Buſtleton, where it ſtops to Breakfaſt; from Buſtletown it goes through Newtown to Penny-town to dinner; from Penny-town through Hopewell, Millſtone, Bound-brook, Quibbletown and Plainfield to Scotch Plains to lodge. The next morning it ſtops at Springfield to breakfaſt, from whence it goes through Newark and arrives at New-York at noon.

From NEW-YORK it ſtarts at 3 o'clock in the afternoon (from Paulus Hook) and arrives at Philadelphia the next evening. For ſeats at New-York, application may be made to Edward Bardin, Old Coffee houſe, to A. Mathieu, corner of Naſſau and John ſtreets, to B. Many, no. 48, Courtlandt, corner of Greenwich ſtreet, and to Michael Little, at his hotel, no. 42, Broad ſtreet.

Fare for paſſengers, Five Dollars.
Way paſſengers 6 Cents per Mile.

Each paſſenger is allowed to take on 14lbs. of baggage carriage free; but all other baggage, taken on by a paſſenger, will be charged at 4 cents per pound weight.

With reſpect to packages ſent on without paſſengers, the proprietors preſume they have adopted a regulation, which, though unknown to other lines of ſtages, they think muſt meet with general approbation, They pledge themſelves to make good every package on the following conditions. The perſon who delivers the package at the office ſhall ſee it entered in the ſtage-book, for which entry he ſhall pay 6 cents; he will then ſtate the value of the package, and pay (excluſive of the carriage) one per cent. on the value, as inſurance, and for which he will receive a receipt. Thus, for inſtance, if he eſtimates his package at one dollar, he will pay one cent, and if at one hundred dollars, he will pay one dollar inſurance, and in like proportion for packages of any other value.

Very few perſons it is preſumed, will diſlike this regulation; it will however, be optionable with every one to avail himſelf of this ſecurity or not. But the proprietors think it right to ſtate very explicitly, that they will be reſponſible for the ſafe delivery of no package, which is not regularly entered, and for which an inſurance receipt cannot be produced.

In the diſtribution of the route, the greateſt care has been taken to fix on ſuch places and taverns as always afford a good accommodation and entertainment for the paſſengers at the moſt reaſonable rates. The ſtages are well equipped furniſhed with fleet and ſteady horſes, and committed to the care of intelligent ſober and obliging drivers. The proprietors themſelves live at the different towns and villages where the ſtages will ſtop, ſo that the conduct of the perſons they employ is continually an object of their attention.—They take care alſo to ſee that the paſſengers are well provided for and politely treated at the taverns, and that no ſort of chicanery or inſolence is practiſed upon them; in ſhort, they have ſpared neither pains nor expence to render the SWIFT-SURE the very beſt line of ſtages in America.

The line has now run nearly a month, during which time a great number of gentlemen have gone through, both from Philadelphia and New-York. Every paſſenger has found the road to ſurpaſs very far all that has been ſaid of its excellence; and the Proprietors of the Swift Sure are extremely happy to hear the behaviou, of their drivers, and the treatment at Taverns ſpoken of with the higheſt ſatisfaction.

Reſolved, That on the firſt day of October next, this board will proceed to elect a Profeſſor of Engliſh and Grammar, who ſhall receive, for his ſervices, at the rate of £200 per annum, to be paid quarterly; and that public notice thereof be given, &c. &c, Teſt, A. C. HANSON.

N. B. The office aforeſaid hath juſt become vacant, by the reſignation of a gentleman, whoſe affairs require, the immediate undertaking of a voyage by ſea.

It is the duty of the ſaid Profeſſor (to whom is allowed an aſſiſtant) to teach the Engliſh language grammatically, and to prepare ſtudents for a ſuperior ſchool, by teaching them the Latin grammar, the Vocabulary, and Cordery. Writing is to be taught to all his ſcholars at ſtated hours; and to thoſe ſtudents who are not deſtined for the ſuperior ſchool, are to be taught, at the diſcretion of their parents, or guardians, Arithmetic, and other branches of ſcience uſually taught in Engliſh ſchools —A complete knowledge then of Latin, Arithmetic, &c. is conſidered indiſpenſible in the profeſſor; and it is expected, that candidates who are not known to the Board, will ſubmit to an examination, as well as produce ſatisfactory teſtimonials of their good morals, and fair characters.

The Printers within the United States are requeſted to inſert in their papers the foregoing reſolution and remarks, and to repeat the publication, as often as convenience will admit, until the 20th day of September next.
